

OPT-OUT REQUEST FORM
Fourth Grade

If you wish to opt your child out of all or some of the Fourth Grade Family Life Education (FLE) lessons, please complete this form and return it to the school office or to your child's teacher by the second week of school. These experiences can be provided by the teacher through the climate of the classroom, or integrated into the classroom curriculum. These experiences can also be provided by the school counselor through individual, group counseling, or classroom guidance. Standards that focus on sensitive topics will be taught in gender separate classes with our medical staff teaching the lessons.

PLEASE NOTE: You do not need to return this form unless you are opting your child out of all or some of the Fourth Grade Family Life Education lessons.
